The SHOPPER SALUTES

NEVADA CITY: The town this week welcomed two experienced young merchants, Bill Novak and Buzz Colvin, whose new department store (Novak & Colvin) opened Monday morning. The two owners greeted a large volume of customers during the week. On the opening day, assisted by their wives, one of their duties was the arrangement of a huge assortment of flowers sent by well-wishers.

Bill Novak has a wide acquaintance in Grass Valley, part of which stems from many years of meeting the public in J. C. Penney Co.

He was born in Leadville, Colorado, in 1913, on Halloween. He went to school there and, upon graduating from high school, first began work for Penney. The Novaks (she is the former Anna Marie Dolan) have one son, Carl Frank, who is six years old.

Novak's hobbies are hunting and fishing. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus and of the Catholic Church.

Buzz Colvin's acquaintanceship in the area is well-established, and his experience for many years as manager of Bert's Dry Goods Store in Grass Valley will be of value to him in operating the new concern.

Colvin, a native of Grass Valley, was born in 1915. He has been married for 8 years. The Colvins are the proud parents of 14-month-old Marsha Gay. Colvin graduated from Grass Valley High School in 1933.

He worked in Bert's until he joined the Army in 1942. He saw overseas service with the 8th Air Force Supply, stationed at Watton field. He is a member of the American Legion and the Episcopal Church.

Novak & Colvin, besides a complete yardage and dry goods department, carries a splendid line of men's work clothes, bedding, neckties, children's shoes, and infant's and little girl's and teen-ager's dresses, linens, women's wear and accessories.

A fine spirit of cordiality was evinced by the community which welcomed the new store to the community with a full-page ad in the Nugget Shopper.

LUMBERMEN TO FORM ASSOCIATION

NEVADA CITY: Representatives of the county's lumbermen met last night with officers of the Independent Lumbermen's Co-operative Association at the National Hotel.

Art Seaman, president of the association, presided at the meeting. A group of 50 attended the meeting, including independent lumbermen, Chamber of Commerce members, and representatives of the Forest Service.

Main accomplishment of the meeting was naming of a membership committee headed by Claude E. Clark, and including Otto Schiffner, M. E. Hammill, Frank Pendola, Lloyd Webb, Kenneth Arbogast, Pete Andreotti, Robert Tamblyn and Paul Bergemann.

Purpose of forming a unit in this area was opposition to the possible establishment of a "sustained yield co-operative" on the "Woodleaf" pattern in this area. Lumbering is not at present done on that basis in the Tahoe National Forest.

Principal speakers at the meeting were: Seaman, Roy Manwell, Superior Judge Coates of Sutter County, Guerdon Ellis, Tahoe Forest Supervisor, Otto Schiffner and Warren Shingle.

Lumbermen spoke against assertedly monopolistic phases of the Woodleaf arrangement, while Ellis described the evils of overcutting, and pointed out Hobart Mills a "community that disappeared from the face of the earth," because of the too-rapid cutting of timber.

The total area of the British crown colony known as the Straits Settlement is 1356 square miles.

ACHING AFTERMATH OF SIDEWALK BATTLE

NEVADA CITY: Jim Wilson, taxi driver, who suffered head injuries when he was knocked down a week ago Saturday night by Robert Snider, miner and welder, was still in the Nevada County Hospital. He complains of a bad headache. He was taken originally to the Miners Hospital where the fluoroscope was used to determine his injuries.

Despite the fact that Snider's fist sent his head crashing against the sidewalk, no fractures were observed. Chief of Police Max Solaro states both Snider and Wilson are under arrest. Snider is at liberty on $507 bail. Wilson was arrested for beating up Ivan Albro, local business man, shortly before he was knocked down by Snider.

DAVIS TO ADDRESS HISTORIANS MONDAY

NEVADA CITY: H. P. Davis, author and historian, will be the guest speaker before the Nevada Historical Society Monday night, April 12th, when the members meet at 8 o'clock in the National Hotel here.

Election of nine members of the board of directors will follow Davis's address.

DURBROW REPORTS RED CROSS DRIVES NOW OVER QUOTA

GRASS VALLEY: Will Durbrow, who headed the drive for Red Cross funds in this city yesterday reported that it was over the top. The quota for Grass Valley was $4,693.

Cotton apparently was brought to California by the padres, but the date is unknown.

Local Realtors Open Cafeteria of Real Estate

GRASS VALLEY: Something new under the sun has at last been created in the listing and sale of real estate. The Stinson Company, well-known Grass Valley Realtors, located at 102 West Main Street, is opening a Cafeteria of Real Estate, under the plan and nationally trade-marked name of "Realeteria."

Under this new plan of real estate marketing, now in effect in leading cities and marketing centers throughout California, listings of property for sale are no longer hidden in file boxes where the public cannot see them. Instead, listings are clearly shown on display cards, through a unique method of printed display type paste-up, a patented process. Listings are then hung on a chrome-plated, rotating display rack, where persons looking for homes or investments of any kind in real estate may look them over without obligation in any way.

Essential information is given on each listing card—size and character of the property, character of location, proximity to schools, transportation and stores, price and down payment. Prospective buyers thus "save time and save money," according to W. H. Stinson, Manager of the Stinson Company, and quickly find just the place they are looking for before requesting further information on it or asking to see it.

Realtor Stinson predicts plenty of good business through this modern method of merchandise display, now applied to the listing and sale of real estate. The Stinson organization is now being expanded for the purpose of better handling the expected increase in business.

The "Grand Opening" of the Stinson Realeteria, designed to serve the general area of Grass Valley and Nevada City, will be held on Saturday and Sunday, April 10th and 11th. The general public is invited. They will give away 100 FREE Gardenias.

JOSIAH ROYCE famous teacher and eminent philosopher was born at Grass Valley in 1855. His father and mother who had crossed the plains during the summer of 1849, settled at Grass Valley in '54 and at the time of Josiah's birth were operating a small dairy in this town.

Public health authorities are seriously alarmed at the fact that the plague, that virulent disease of the Orient, carried to this country by rats, has advanced among rodents as far east as North Dakota. If the disease ever reaches the eastern metropolitan areas, epidemics of unprecedented proportions may result.

THE -
Diary of a 49'er
FROM THE BOOK EDITED BY C. L. CANFIELD

I have made a clean breast of it to Pard and showed him Marie's letter. He read it carefully and before translating it to me said that it was written by a good woman. There was not very much to it and some parts of it made me blush, although it was all very simple and nothing to be ashamed of. Said she was first attracted by my fresh young face and her wonder that anyone so innocent looking could be a gambler, and when she found out her mistake and heard about me buying the crippled dog and packing him home she was interested. There was a lot more and I guess I must have been pretty soft when we were together at the city. I don't believe she will ever come back, but Pard insists that I don't know anything about women, their whims and inclinations, and I can make up my mind that she has come into my life and will not go out without a struggle. The "old boy" was mighty good, did not laugh or make fun of me or Marie, but said I would have to choose between her and Hetty and that I better quit mooning around like a sick calf and when the crisis came make my choice like a man. He does not know that the engagement with Hetty is off. Pard says it is a romance of the pines, although there is nothing very romantic in a hero in a flannel shirt and overalls.

The Diary of a 49'er

The claim pays regularly and it is almost certain that we will clean up ten or twelve thousand dollars apiece.

JUNE 8, 1851—After doing our washing yesterday, one flannel shirt and the dishes, and baking a batch of bread in the Dutch oven I went over to Selby Flat. There is a young fellow living there called MacCalkins, who has been to our claim several times until we got pretty well acquainted, and he told me what a jolly crowd he cabins with, what good times they have together and has asked me and Pard to come on a visit some Saturday evening. I coaxed Anderson to go along; said he did not feel like having a stag blowout; rather have a pasear with Jack over on the river, but for me to make the trip and pick up some new friends, it might cure my melancholy. Pard gets sarcastic occasionally about my sweethearts.
